

Teacher's Day, 2022

“Believe in yourself. You are braver than you think, more talented than you know, and capable of more than you imagine”

Department of Applied Sciences and Humanities of Panipat Institute of Engineering and Technology organised Teacher's Day celebration at APJ Auditorium. Inauguration of the event was done by lighting the lamp by Shri Hari Om Tayal Ji, Chairmen PIET,

Mr. Suresh Tayal Member BOG, Rakesh Tayal Member BOG, Director Dr. Shakti Kumar, Dr. Vinay Khatri Head of Department Applied sciences and Humanities.

The program began with an informative lecture on Anti-Ragging by Dr. Sunil Dhull(HOD-ME). The function was started with the invocation of goddess Saraswati who is known as symbol of knowledge and peace in the form of Saraswati Vandana. The program was followed with an introduction note by the Anchoring Team. Importance of teachers and role of a teacher play on removing the darkness of ignorance and lighting ot with knowledge and showing the future of youth were briefly told. The audience were extremely enthralled by the melodious solo singing, declamation and poetry here held. To keep the entertainment quotient high killer performance were given by the highly talented artist. Solo dances were performed for one hour and the audience was filled with entertainment and happiness.

Teacher's Day prize distribution was held and the students were given certificate and medals. It boosted the morale of the winners. Also participating certificate were given to the non-winning team.

The program of the day came to an end with vote of thanks given by Dr. Vinod Kumari. The event was well organised and the students-maintained discipline throughout the event.